Culture: Roadmap to value and behavior

The advertisement features three panels of a green sports car, viewed from the rear. The first panel is labeled 'freedom', the second 'status symbol', and the third 'polluter'. The car is parked on a road with a forest in the background. The text is overlaid on the car's rear.

The more you look at the world,
the more you recognise that what one person values
may be different to the next.
